So I believe the article I sent you talks about pteropods collected at the mouth of the Columbia River, which would be the northern Oregon border. Can you please review the 2014 article as well, as I know it will come up. Thx.

Hi Karla,

Can you please make sure that you guys reviewed the following article and address it in the CBD response to comments?
I know it came out well after your data cutoff, but I know it will be brought up. Thx.
